

Prefect Person Specification

Downlands Community School's prefects are exemplary role models for younger students. This means that they have the following qualities:

This means that Downlands Community School's prefects must be:

- Organised and approachable.
- Confident and can show good leadership skills.
- Trustworthy and honest to younger and older people.
- Always dressed in line with the school's uniform policy.
- Capable of working hard and making good progress in most subjects.
- Completing all homework and independent study tasks to the best of their ability.
- Well behaved in and around the school, setting a positive example for others.
- Respectful to their peers, their teachers and the school environment.
- Conducting themselves around school in a responsible, positive and friendly manner.