

Hairdressing Apprenticeship

Opportunity for School Leaver

Hair and Beauty for Everyone, based in Burgess Hill are looking for a school leaver who is interested in starting a career in Hairdressing through an apprenticeship.

This will offer hands-on salon experience with our friendly team, along with many benefits including staff discount and a chance to build valuable skills in an professional environment.

The successful applicant will attend the Lindsey James Training Academy in Horsham one day a week as part of their training, with the rest of their week spend working in the salon gain practical experience.

We are looking for someone who is enthusiastic, reliable, friendly and passionate about hair and beauty to join our welcoming and supportive salon team.

Contact us on hair.beauty@btconnect.com

to find out more